

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

JANUARY 23, 1818.

The committee on military affairs, to whom was referred the petition of John Keemle,

REPORT;

The petitioner states that he entered the army of the revolution, as surgeon's mate, in June 1776. That he continued in service for a considerable length of time; and whilst in service he supplied a few officers and soldiers for a short time. No account is rendered, or proof adduced that the claim is just. The committee therefore submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the petitioner have leave to withdraw his petition.
